

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

Recent changes in the law require anyone applying for a driver's license or state identification card to provide documentation of a valid Security number, U.S. citizenship or legal presence, identity and residency. Although we are revising What Every Driver Must Know, the Web version and printed copies do not yet reflect these latest changes.

More information about the licensing and ID card requirements is available on the Department of State Web site under Driver's License or State ID or by calling (888) SOS-MICH (767-6424).
